The diagram illustrates the timing of events over time. The total duration is denoted by $T_C$, and the delay between events is $T_D$. Each event is represented by a bar, with $T_1$, $T_2$, $T_3$, and so on, up to $T_N$. The timing of each event is indicated by the position along the time axis.